

ASSUME LEADERSHIP . . . Mrs. Clara Dougherty, president of the Pilot club hands the gavel to Mrs. Charles Mitchell, center, new president at the installation dinner held April 23. Looking on is Miss Esther Harter of Beverly Hills, immediate past district governor of Pilot International who came to Torrance to conduct the installation.

Fifth Installation Held by Pilot Club

Fifth annual installation of officers of the Pilot Club of Torrance was held at the Jumpin' Jack Restaurant on April 23. Mrs. John Whittington, chairman of the Club Action Committee, was in charge of arrangements for the program. She was assisted by Mmes. Charles Mitchell, Mary Young, Mildred Krueger and Elizabeth Holland. Clara Dougherty, club president, was the presiding officer.

An interesting program on "Human Relations" was given by Harold Frenz, Manager of Torrance branch of the Bank of America.

In an impressive ceremony conducted by Miss Esther Harter of Beverly Hills, immediate past District Governor of Pilot International, the following officers were installed: Mrs. Charles Mitchell, president; Mrs. John Whittington, first vice president; Mrs. Mary Young, second vice president; Miss Mae Sleep, recording and corresponding secretary; Mrs. Joseph Burchfield, treasurer; Mmes. Joseph DeJaifre, Clara Dougherty and Herma Tillim as Directors.

A beautiful wooden ship's wheel, emblem of Pilot International, was presented to the club by Mrs. Mitchell. It had
